Members of the Association of Community Theatre

ACT is an umbrella organisation which covers ALL performing groups involved in theatrical productions, embracing Drama, Musical, Pantomime Groups, Gang Shows, Dance School Productions, College and School Presentations, Choral Groups, Circus and more.

Run by its Members for its Members through Transparency, Visibility and Community.

ACT aims to educate and develop the public's appreciation of the performing arts and to support all of the Members by offering assistance, advocacy and by sharing information. Members also benefit from a suite of support including access to publications, technical advice, discounted financial support and importantly, the experience and knowledge of other like minded people. Membership is made up of those people who want to uphold the aims of the Association and the Association extends its membership to any individual, society, group or business that regard themselves as being part of the performing arts.
